Opportunity for Grade 6, 7 students

Students in Grades 6 and 7 are invited to apply to the Legislative Page program run by the provincial government. This unique opportunity offers students a behind-the-scenes experience of how government works. Please see the poster on the last page of this newsletter for further information.

Don't forget your water, hat

As the warm weather is here, just a reminder to send your child to school with a water bottle and a hat.

Pick up items from Lost and Found

Items from the Lost and Found bin have been organized on tables in the foyer. Please come by the school to have a look for any items you may be missing. Everything will be packed up Friday, June 9 to be donated to the needy.

ONTARIO'S
LEGISLATIVE

PROGRAM

A Unique Experience

Each year approximately 150 young students from across Ontario are selected to participate in Ontario's Legislative Page Program. The program is designed for outgoing, high-achieving, community-involved students who have demonstrated responsibility and leadership.

Legislative Pages support the functions of the House, meet key parliamentary figures, and learn first-hand about Ontario's Parliament and the legislative process.

Be a part of Ontario's Parliament during your Grade 7 or 8 school year!
